

Benny's Grades

Once there was a school called Rabbit School. Benny goes to Rabbit School. He has lots of friends. But he always gets bad grades. His friends are helping him get a good grade. The teacher said that Benny has to go to after school.

Benny got better and better and he didn't have to go to after school any more. He was so happy. On Sunday he had a party. At the party they made yummy cookies. The party was fun.

The next day at school Benny got an A+ on his report. At recess he and his friends played the party game. It was fun.

Benny promised to do his homework on time.
He got A+ on everything from then on. His mom was so happy.
